The Mating Capacity Discussion is an assessment of DKLO #5. The assessment measures the student’s ability to integrate knowledge from the various disciplines to effectively conduct livestock operations by researching and recommending male to female ratios on a hypothetical cattle and sheep operation via a Canvas Discussion with their peers.

5. Integrate knowledge from the various disciplines to effectively conduct livestock operations.