The Barn Management Project is an assessment of the DKLO #1. The assessment measures the student’s ability to demonstrate their knowledge in applied mathematics and basic sciences required for disciplinary competency by incorporating these concepts into the operations and horse health care protocols required in their respective Equine Facilities.

1. Demonstrate Knowledge in applied mathematics and basic sciences required for disciplinary competency.